ORDER

On September 20, 2013, Administrative Law Judge Raymond P. Green of the National Labor Relations Board issued his Decision in the above-entitled proceeding and, on the same date, the proceeding was transferred to and continued before the Board in Washington, D.C. The Administrative Law Judge found that the Respondents have engaged in certain unfair labor practices, and recommended that they take specific action to remedy such unfair labor practices.

On December 9, 2013, the Office of the Executive Secretary granted the Respondents' request to withdraw their exceptions to the decision of the Administrative Law Judge.¹ Accordingly,

Pursuant to Section 10(c) of the National Labor Relations Act, as amended, and Section 102.48 of the National Labor Relations Board Rules and Regulations, the Board adopts the findings and conclusions of the Administrative Law Judge as contained in his Decision, and orders that the Respondents, their officers, agents, successors, and assigns, shall take the action set forth in the recommended Order of the Administrative Law Judge.

Dated, Washington, D.C., December 20, 2013.

By direction of the Board:

Farah Z. Qureshi

Associate Executive Secretary

¹ On December 19, 2013, the Board granted Counsel for the General Counsel's Motion to Sever the above-captioned cases from the rest of the cases involved in this proceeding.
